To the Judge of Probate of Penobscot County, Maine.

James M. Blanchard, the undersigned, represents that on the [illegible] day of December, 18[illegible], Alvin Clark, [illegible] of Corinth, now deceased, made a [illegible] contract to convey to the undersigned a parcel of land in Exeter, [illegible] County, thus described: [illegible] A part of lot No. 2 in the fourth range of lots in said Exeter, containing seven and 38-100 [illegible], more or less, with the buildings on the same [illegible] one in the third range [illegible] Exeter, and containing two acres [illegible] of an acre, and both of said parcels being [illegible] occupied by Carter Blanchard, and being [illegible] premises which were conveyed by [illegible] to [illegible] Alvin G. Clark, by my deed of warranty [illegible] recorded in the Penobscot [illegible] of Deeds, Vol. [illegible], page [illegible], provided the [illegible] I pay said Clark the sum of two [illegible] all other demands the undersigned [illegible] conveyance to be made [illegible] days after demand, or said payments being [illegible]. Now the undersigned avers that he has [illegible] and is ready to perform the conditions [illegible] by the terms of said contract, and [illegible] Clark has been prevented by death from [illegible] the conveyance. Wherefore he prays that [illegible] Noah Barker, Esq., the Administrator of said Clark's estate, to make such conveyance.

The Testimony of the Whole World.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

"I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one."
"Your Pills are marvelous."
"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."
"Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was chronic."
"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."
"My nausea of a morning is now cured."
"Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment behind the ears, and the noise has left."
"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."
"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."
"Send me five boxes of your Pills."
"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail, for Chills and Fever."
I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

For Cutaneous Disorders,

And all eruptions of the skin, this Ointment is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

Invariably cure the following diseases:

Disorder of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water, or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in case of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best known in the world for the following diseases: Ague, Asthma, Bilious Complaints, Blotches on the Skin, Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fevers of all kinds, Fits, Gout, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Jaundice, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine, Scrofula or King's Evil, Sore Throats, Stone and Gravel, Tic-Douloureux, Tumors, Ulcers, Worms of all kinds, Weakness from any cause, etc.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

None are genuine unless the signature of J. HAYDOCK, as agent for the United States, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the manufactory of PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY & CO., New York, and by all respectable druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

CATARRH.

Would willingly have given one hundred dollars for the relief obtained from the first dose.

From a well known maker of Yale's Mammoth Tent.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered ten years from the worst form of ACUTE CATARRH, or Cold in the Head, that ever afflicted mortal man. Whenever I took a fresh cold it would settle in my head, causing [illegible] sneezing, accompanied by excessive discharges from my eyes and nose. For days and days my suffering would be intense, and it finally settled in my lungs and bowels, would render my life miserable for a month. Never, during all my sufferings, was I able to gain even temporary relief from any medicine I ever tried. Three weeks ago, while suffering from the worst attack I ever had, I procured a bottle of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. The relief from the first dose was so gratifying that I would willingly have given one hundred dollars for it. A few doses completely cured me. My head has since been perfectly free from mucous accumulations, my breathing easy, and not a symptom of trouble [illegible] back and bowels [illegible] itself [illegible] truly remarkable.

Very respectfully, [illegible] YALE,
Sail and Awning Maker, [illegible]

CATARRH.

A Remarkable Case of Catarrh Cured by the use of Twelve Bottles.

We select the following case as showing how frightful this disease may become and as a convincing proof of the value of Sanford's Radical Cure as a reliable remedy for its cure, even in cases of the greatest severity. We regret that, from motives of delicacy, the gentleman declined to permit the use of his name:—

Case No. 11.—This is the case of a man in the prime of life who had contracted the disease [illegible] years ago. Favored by a [illegible] condition of the blood, the disease continued to poison [illegible] every part of the system, so that when he commenced the use of Sanford's Radical Cure it had become one of the worst cases in existence. [illegible] The discharge at night was thick, putrid, and streaked with blood, and often twelve in quantity as to discharge itself upon the pillow during sleep, and collecting in quantities in his throat, would, at the point of strangulation, awaken him several times each night. [illegible] he was obliged to get up and partially clear his [illegible] before he could sleep. From the use of the first bottle of the Radical Cure to the present, the cure has been gradual, satisfactory, and permanent. He has used in all, twelve bottles, and now experiences no return of the discharge nor any of the disagreeable symptoms, besides enjoying unusually good health otherwise.

CATARRH.

A Series of uninterrupted Cures effected with it by a well-known Boston Physician.

From Dr. Chas. Main.

Catarrh is the opprobrium medicorum of the medical profession, and by many is thought incurable. When, therefore, a preparation is presented to my notice, endorsed by so responsible a firm as Weeks & Potter, I am bound to give it a fair and unprejudiced trial, and when such trial results in a series of uninterrupted cures, I cannot allow professional etiquette to interfere with a candid expression of my regard for it. I therefore give Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh my unqualified approval, and consider it a remedy for the treatment of every form of Catarrh superior to any preparation laid down in any text-book with which I am familiar.

Very respectfully,
DR. CHARLES MAIN,
Boston, May 10. 312 Harrison Avenue.

Each package contains Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, with full directions for using in all cases. Price $1.00. For sale by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston.

MY BABIES IN PRAYER-TIME.

BY A CLERGYMAN'S WIFE.

I think I should feel easier about my two youngsters—aged respectively a year and a half and three years—if I could account for their wickedness upon natural principles. But how on earth such ancestry as theirs—two long rows of unspotted deacons and ministers—could ever produce two such little imps is quite beyond me. All the wild oats that has been smothered under white ties for a couple of centuries have cropped out in my two boys; and all I have to say 'tis very hard on me. I have borne with them until patience is no longer a virtue, and now I bring them up before the religious public for discipline. Solomon says, "Spare the rod and spoil the child," but he was a wise old gentleman not to commit himself any farther. What would he have us to do if after an unsparing use of the rod the child is still spoiled? From the time that my small men step out of their respective cribs in the morning till they tumble into them at night, our house is one "scene of confusion and creature complaints." One eternal howl, rising and falling, changing from sad to gay, from mad to repentant, but never dying away till the little eyes are closed and the fat fists punched into the pillows for the night.

We always have morning prayers in the sitting-room. There in front of the blazing fire, are two great easy-chairs, dubbed respectively, "the big bear's chair" and "the middle-sized bear's chair." Then there are two crickets for the "little bears." After we had our breakfast, and the two youngsters have eaten a miraculous quantity of oatmeal, they know that the next thing on the programme is to go into the sitting-room and seat themselves for "prayer." So they start pell-mell, trip over one another, and sprawl headlong, one on top of the other, through the doorway; the upper one pounds the under one, and the under one roars and howls. Then we sit down, in which process the baby is always sure to come short of his cricket and sit down a little to one side, with a thump and a roar. Then each must have some sort of a book for a Bible. Baby prefers "Keble's Christian Year," because it has a red cover, while Charles has a leaning to "Wild Sports in the Far West," because now and again he can steal a peep at the bloodthirsty engravings. We are about to commence. Paterfamilias looks solemn. "Charles," he says, "if you are not a good boy papa will have to punish you after prayers." Charles looks awe-struck, and baby's lip quivers. We all feel solemn enough to commence. We have read a dozen verses, and the children sit still, motionless. I fall to thinking what a beautiful thing it is to have the little ones worship with us. Their memories may treasure up words that are empty now, but in after years may be full of meaning. We read a few more verses. Bless me! The crickets and their owners have disappeared. They have "hitched" along noiselessly, and are pinching one another behind the desk. A few more verses, and they crawl around behind my chair tandem-fashion. "Children," I say, in an agonized whisper, "go back; don't you remember what papa said?" But they are deaf to remonstrance, and the next thing they do is to get the tongs and poker and send the loudest kind of reveille on the coal-scuttle. "Children," I fairly shout, "go back to your seat this instant." They go, and we all kneel down for the prayer. Baby turns Methodist, and his responses come near drowning the prayer. Charles has a pin, and is about to stick it into baby's leg when I restrained him. Then they both stand upon their crickets, and make a simultaneous dive for the depths of my easy chair, nearly knocking me into the fire. Next they pull off their father's slippers, and are about to commit assault and battery on him. Just then he says, "Our Father who art in heaven." They recognize this phrase as "the beginning of the end," and the transformation is wonderful. Little heads are bent and hands folded devoutly, and in that attitude they remain for a full minute after we are on our feet, a proof positive that they have been "good." We hold a family council as to the degree of badness that merits a whipping, and end with giving them a solemn lecture and a free pardon.

We entertained a minister not long since for a week. Of course he conducted prayers, and I said, apologetically, that I hoped the children did not disturb him. Poor man! Like George W., he could not tell a lie. So he blushed and said they did distract him a little, but he hoped he should be able not to notice it. [illegible]

Cannot any one who reads this tale of woe suggest a remedy? I appeal to those who have no children—their theories are always the best—to tell me what to do.—Christian Union.

STATE NEWS.

The price of hay has fallen some recently in Houlton.——They are hauling large quantities of bark for the tanneries this winter. They haul on the banks of the Monument stream from one hundred to a hundred and twenty-five cords a day. This is for the tannery at Forest City. The steamer after the ice leaves, will come up from Grand Lake, go through the draw bridge up the North Lake and then up the Monument to the bark landing.——There has been quite a quantity of large yellow birch timber hauled from Hodgdon, Orient and vicinity to the St. John River to be carried down to St. John and shipped to England. It is hauled about twenty or twenty-five miles. The most of it is hewed and large squaring from a foot and one-half to upwards of two feet. They only pay the small sum of fifty cents a ton for the stumpage.——The Rev. Mr. Pickard of Newport has been spending some two weeks with the Free Baptist churches of Houlton and Hodgdon with a view to settlement with them. They think of trying to secure his services.——There are but few cases of scarlet fever now in Hodgdon.

On Tuesday of last week, while Elder Morris Lincoln of Harmony, was riding on a horse sled, he accidentally fell forward, so that his head was situated near the heels of his horse, which became frightened and kicked, fracturing Mr. Lincoln's under jaw in two places and otherwise frightfully mutilating his face. Though a man of over seventy years old, his recovery seems quite probable.——The house and furniture of Ira Hurd of Harmony were burned about a fortnight ago.

The Times says that a Miss Gilpatrick of Biddeford died after injections of morphine to relieve neuralgia. Shortly after she became insensible and her breathing was such that her friends became alarmed and summoned quite a number of other physicians one after another, but none could bring her relief, and she died about eight o'clock that evening. She appeared like one whose nerves were entirely prostrated. She would breathe four or five times in the space of five minutes—four or five quick respirations and then all breathing appeared to cease for about five minutes, when another four or five respirations would ensue.

THE NEW CITY GOVERNMENT

The new City Government was duly inaugurated yesterday and the members are now confronted with the duty of conducting our public affairs during the current year. It is due to Hon. W. B. Hayford who has just retired from the office of Mayor, to commend the energy and ability which he has brought to the discharge of its onerous duties, and the uniform courtesy and dignity which have marked his official course. Dr. Hamlin brings to the office an ability and earnestness which give assurance of success, and in all his efforts for the promotion of our public interests he will have the hearty co-operation of the people.

The statement of our contemporary that the Aldermen voted yesterday against retrenchment of expenses was a severe political strain. The members of the majority expressed themselves quite as earnestly in favor of economy as others, but they objected to issuing pronunciamentos before commencing their work. The City Council will be judged by its acts performed and not by the anticipatory passage of resolves.

We believe that the members of the new City Government realize the responsibilities devolved upon them, and that they will studiously endeavor to guard well the interests committed to their care. This must be done by working together for the common object of securing efficiency and economy, and to secure these ends vigilance, sagacity and industry will be required.

THE REAL ISSUE

Whether from a sense of shame induced by comparing its recent utterances with the emphatic views it expressed while a Presidential election depended upon the faithfulness of the Republicans of the South, or whether it is beginning to hear from the people who hold principle superior to policy, the New York Times is moderating its zeal for the inauguration of a policy dictated by the leading revolutionists of the South, and begins to suggest that the President had better reconsider his reported intention of withdrawing the United States forces from the South. At the close of a very labored and evasive editorial it says:

It must not be inferred from the silence of the North upon this subject that it is indifferent to the contingencies involved. The natural wish of Republicans everywhere is not to embarrass the President in the performance of a delicate task. They credit him with the best intentions. They know that he will not willingly expose to peril the cause for which they have struggled in the Southern States. But it is a simple duty to say that they are uneasy under the influence of reports which come from Washington and that they would regard with apprehension any such action as the President is said to contemplate with regard to the troops now in the South. He may carry out literally the policy he has indicated and there will not be a murmur worth heeding. But the conciliatory measures must be reciprocal, or the repressed feeling of the North will obtain emphatic expression.

This is taking a great many indefinite words to say that the people of the North are desirous now, as they have manifestly been since the war, of employing all honorable methods of conciliating their fellow-citizens who tried to destroy the Union, but that neither personal regard for a President nor the sophistries of a time-serving press will induce them to sanction any surrender of principle or any betrayal of the rights of those citizens of the South whose only offence has been their loyalty.

Why cannot the Times and other papers look the issue fairly in the face. The plain, unvarnished fact is, as all can see if they will but open their eyes, that the white line minority in South Carolina and Louisiana have directly joined issue with that portion of the Constitution of the United States which confers the right of suffrage upon all citizens without regard to race or color. By the exercise of that right the colored voters and the loyal white men of those States have held the political control, and every revolutionary movement of the White League and Rifle Club organizations in those States has been nothing more nor less than a rebellion against the Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution. The white-line minority declare that they will not submit to be ruled by a majority largely composed of colored voters, and they have sought by proscription, violence, intimidation, and wholesale massacre to prevent the exercise of that right which carries with it political control.

In Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and other States the Fifteenth Amendment has been practically and effectively annulled, and the real issue in South Carolina and Louisiana to-day is a similar attempt to take from the colored people the political rights they have acquired by the suffrage guaranteed them by that Constitutional Amendment. They have elected a Governor and a Legislature in Louisiana, for instance, by votes held to be good enough to elect a President of the United States; but the Democratic minority, who swear they will not submit to any government elected by "nigger" votes, demand that the Constitution shall be ignored and that they be permitted to usurp control by force. That is precisely the situation.

Now there are some people at the North who strenuously disapprove of the political supremacy of the colored men in any State, no matter how large their majority may be, just as all the white-liners at the South denounce negro suffrage as a great wrong. But we venture to suggest that neither those people at the North, nor the ex-slave-drivers of the South, nor the President of the United States, have authority to set aside or tamper with the provisions of the National Constitution by any compromise with caste prejudice or any bargaining with revolutionists.

The Constitution of the United States to-day guarantees the right of colored men to exercise political control wherever they have a majority of votes. That right cannot be lawfully denied or abridged by any power except through an Amendment proposed by two-thirds of both branches of Congress and ratified by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States. Until that is done the right of the colored voters of Louisiana to elect Governor Packard cannot be ignored by the President of the United States, nor can he avoid the Constitutional obligation to give the exercise of those rights his official recognition, and to protect the Republican form of government which represents them against revolutionary combinations.

We do not see where the President can find any authority whatever for negotiating for the surrender of a legally elected State Government to the control of persons representing a turbulent minority, having no title to recognition, and whose pretensions are in open conflict with the Constitution of the United States.

LOUISIANA AND SOUTH CAROLINA.

Perhaps our readers will have more patience than we can feel in reading the following Washington despatches to the Boston 'Herald,' reporting the proposed withdrawal of Federal protection from South Carolina and Louisiana, and a continuance of the Matthews intrigues to induce two Republican Governors to betray their constituents into the hands of the white-liners:

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 17. The Senate having taken itself out of the way, and the new Administration being fairly in running order, the next important political development will be the withdrawal of the troops from the State Houses in New Orleans and Columbia. It is the intention of the President to issue these orders at once, and before the end of another week probably Nicholls and Hampton will be fully established as Governors of their respective States. Nearly all the Louisiana politicians who have been in the city for weeks in the interest of the Nicholls government leave for New Orleans to-night. They say that they have assurances that the order for the withdrawal of the army from South Carolina and Louisiana will be proposed at the Cabinet meeting on Tuesday next, and the army will withdraw to the military reservation on Wednesday.

The movement begun by Stanley Matthews to bring about a peaceful compromise and settlement in South Carolina, without any action on the part of the President, is continued, and with some prospects of success in the case of Chamberlain, who may resign his claims to office in order to have a larger claim on the Administration afterward than if he continued to assert his rights to the Governorship of South Carolina after Hampton's authority has become absolute. Packard shows some symptoms of fight and still refuses to abandon his post; but even he may yield to the influences which are being brought to bear upon him.

In its report of Col. Ingersoll's address in New York the Times referred to the frequent applause, but said that "one portion of his lecture evidently fell on unsympathetic ears" the whole passage about the President's policy of non-interference in South Carolina and Louisiana "being listened to in dead silence." On the other hand it says, "But his assertion that it was the duty of the Government to protect its citizens elicited the most enthusiastic approbation." Following is an extract from the report:

A Government that cannot bear the faintest cry of the meanest citizen beneath its flag when his rights are being trampled upon, even by a sovereign State, has no right to exist upon the face of the earth. [Great cheering.] It is the duty of the United States of America to see to it that every State has a Government, not only Republican in form, but it is the duty of the United States to see to it that life, liberty and property are protected in each State, and if they are not protected it is the duty of the United States to protect them, if it takes all their military forces both upon land and upon the sea. [Loud applause.]

It was the Hon Stanley Matthews, of Ohio, who wrote to the Governor of Louisiana suggesting that if he would get out of the way and abandon his constituents to the bulldozers he "should receive consideration and position" as a reward. We quote:

So soon as the existing military orders are withdrawn the Nicholls government will become the only existing government and will have to be recognized as such.

* * * *

In the meantime it will be the duty of the Administration * * * to take care that a staunch Republican like yourself * * should not suffer and should receive consideration and position in some appropriate way.

The Boston Journal devotes an editorial to rejoicing at his nomination for Senator from Ohio, in which it indicates that his Chamberlain and Packard letters were after all unidentified with the new policy which it advocates. It says:

The competition for the Senatorial election took the turn of involving a special tribute to President Hayes and an emphatic endorsement of his conciliation policy,—Mr. Matthews standing in such intimate personal relations with the President and being so prominently identified with the new policy that his rejection might have looked like distrust on the part of his own State. On any issue of that kind, Mr. Matthews ought to have been selected, as he has been.

Postmaster-General Key began his civil service reform by appointing two ex-Confederates for postmasters at Petersburg and Lynchburg, Virginia. The post-office at Lynchburg was held by Col. John F. Wilson, who served in the Union army where he lost his arm by a shot in the shoulder and lost one eye by a shot in the face. He was superseded to make place for an ex-Confederate who had but recently moved into Lynchburg. Col. Wilson called on the President and presented such testimonials of character that the President revoked the orders for his supersedure. Petersburg elected the only Republican Congressman from Virginia and the voters who elected him are not pleased with the idea of having a Confederate-Democrat appointed postmaster.

Wendell Phillips relates the following: "A Colonel in the regular army, South Carolina born, once said: 'I lived opposite Mr. Sumner for five years. My window commanded his doorway. I have seen him go out of that door hundreds of times at 11 o'clock to go up to the Senate, and as I saw him shut it in 1855-7-8, I said to myself, "Will that man ever enter that doorway again?" For I knew, Southerner as I was, that if a fanatic or drunkard had taken his life as he passed to the Senate or returned he would have been sheltered by ten States and immortalized as a hero; and I knew there were nine chances out of ten that it might happen any hour.' The colored coachmen avoided him, so as not to run the risk of having him killed in their carriage."

The response of Governor Packard to the letter of Stanley Matthews is a manly, brave, and patriotic document. He wants no compromise with wrong. He is not to be "bought off" by the promises of "consideration and position in some appropriate way." He was elected Governor by the people of Louisiana, and took the office from them as a sacred trust which he cannot and will not surrender, to secure personal safety and aggrandizement. The letter and the response will attract attention throughout the country, and we mistake the heads and hearts of the American people if Governor Packard does not command both their sympathy and their judgment.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

BEECHER AND EVARTS. An exchange has the following:—When Henry Ward Beecher called to retain Mr. Evarts in the Tilton scandal case, says the Chicago Tribune, the lawyer without hesitation replied: "I cannot be of any use to you, Mr. Beecher. I have never taken part in a case of this character, and I could not do it unless I were perfectly certain of your innocence." At these words Mr. Beecher rose and in his impulsive way brought his hand down on the lawyer's shoulders as if it was Plymouth desk. "You are just the man I want," said he. The next morning began a memorable meeting between the emotional, electric preacher and the cool, balanced, logical lawyer. At the end of two hours Mr. Evarts said: "I am satisfied of your innocence, Mr. Beecher. I will take the case."

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

This is the platform of the Burlington (Iowa) Hawkeye: "Blaine, of Maine, is just the same broad-shouldered, big-hearted, grand old Republican in the Senate that he was in the House; a perpendicular Republican, with no more waver to him than there is in the pines of his own rugged State. Blaine's Republicanism is a very sound kind of political gospel, and we hope there is enough of the Blaine leaven in the party to leaven the whole lump."

In the meantime, from what I know of President Hayes, he will not ask the unprotected Governors of these black Republicans—he will not ask Chamberlain and Packard to surrender to the lazy, loafing, Democratic mob, who, leaving the Republicans to till the fields, have come into the capitals to bull-doze the Republic.—Western Cor. [illegible]

It must perplex and astonish the gentlemen who have been in the habit of holding up "Old Zach Chandler" as an awful example, to find his successor, and that successor Carl Schurz, paying "Old Zach" such a handsome compliment. And Mr. Schurz meant what he said, for the Interior Department never has had a better head than Secretary Chandler. If he did not believe in civil service reform, he nevertheless carried it out practically, and even Democratic investigators found nothing to censure, and were compelled to praise.—New Haven Palladium.

Mr. Matthews seems to have gone mad upon the subject of surrendering everything to the Democrats because they back their claims by threats and by a show of force! It would be well for him and those who think as he does to consider what better claim President Hayes would have to his office in case the White League had taken possession of Washington as they have of New Orleans.—Boston Traveller.

Mrs. Stanley Matthews is a sister of Mrs. Watterson, the mother of the Kentucky fire-eater.

The New York Times is gracious enough to concede:

A man having Mr. William Lloyd Garrison's history may be allowed much latitude in his judgment of the South and the policy that should be pursued toward it by the Republican party. Whether we agree with him or not, at least we must respect his motives.

There is no other way of settlement so simple as that of withdrawing the troops, and there is no other that has the shadow of justice in it.—[Boston Post (Dem.)

In no way can be "pacificated" the South as quickly as by letting it alone. The people there are amply able to right their own wrongs if they be relieved of the burden of carpet-baggers and the menaces of federal bayonets.—Portland Argus (Dem.)

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser thinks there is some misunderstanding as to the significance of the word peace, and says: "By a good many it appears to be interpreted as a readiness to meet the Democratic party more than half way, and especially to make all possible concessions to the southern wing of that organization."

Stanley Matthews says he wrote the letter to Chamberlain at the solicitation of General Gordon and Mr. Haskell, Chairman of the South Carolina Democratic State Committee. Gordon and Haskell were so disinterested you know.—Inter-Ocean.

The Journal's special says: "Schurz is already troubled that the salaries of the Assistants and Bureau officers of the Interior Department are not large enough to attract the great talent of the country which he had expected to call about him." So sad!

The papers that labored under the impression that the Administration of President Hayes could be best supported by bitter attacks on Blaine and other old party leaders have subsided.—Exchange.

The Davenport (Iowa) Gazette suggests to the Chicago Tribune that "pacification" in the North among Republicans is of some consequence.

The article in to-day's Boston Journal on the Louisiana strife lends an air of respectability to all the nasty articles on the same prolific topic uttered by Democratic and "independent" journals during the past year. Its logic is as halting as its tone is Sprague-like.—Concord Monitor.

CRONIN.

The last scene of this "strange, eventful history," so far as the election by the people was concerned, was Cronin. I see him now, as he leaves the land where rolls the Oregon, and hears no sound save his own voice! Cronin the last surviving veteran of the grand army of honesty and reform! Cronin, a quorum of one! Cronin, who elected two others by a plurality of his own vote? I see him now, armed with his own opinion and Grover's certificate, trudging wearily and drearily over the white and wasted saleratus deserts of the West.

And still the wonder is, and still it grows,
How one small head could carry all he knows.
—Colonel Ingersoll.

One of the Democratic guerilla organs gleefully quotes some Washington correspondence containing these significant sentences:

A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune telegraphs that the Southern Republicans now in Washington are much discouraged at their prospects. * *

The Democratic members from the South are holding their opinions in reserve, but on the whole are well pleased with the outlook, and remark that if the Administration is to be a Hayes administration, and not a party one, it will be a success.

The Southern Democracy are evidently disposed to exact the strictest deference to the sensitive feelings of the Ku-klux Chivalry. They have the impudence to present M. C. Butler, the Hamburg assassin, for admission to the U. S. Senate, but on the appointment of Mr. Stone as U. S. District Attorney for South Carolina, an issue was at once raised because he made a truthful report of that massacre of defenceless prisoners, and his nomination has been laid over. They want to be "conciliated."

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN HOTEL PROPRIETOR. Thousands scattered throughout the country, will learn with pain of the sudden death of Lewis Rice, Esq., senior proprietor of the American House, Boston. The circumstances attending his death are in brief these: A fire broke out in a building adjacent to the American House about midnight Thursday night. The shock occasioned by the alarm of fire and the explosion of fire-works in the burning building prostrated Mr. Rice in an apoplectic fit. He was carried to his room and died soon after. Mr. Rice was 67 years of age, and for many years was proprietor of the American House.

COSTIVENESS
The Prolific Cause of Ill Health.
What every person needs is a sure Portable, Pleasant and Effective Remedy for INDIGESTION. Without a thorough digestion of the food, there can be no healthful Blood, which is the "Life of Man," and by which the whole system is nourished. The [illegible] is full of [illegible] but the PERISTALTIC LOZENGES
are mild, laxative and tonic, and "ASSIST NATURE." When Dr. Harrison invented the Peristaltic Lozenges he "hit the nail square on the head," as they are pleasant to the palate, act promptly, cause no pain, never require increase of dose, effect thorough digestion of your food, do not weaken the bowels, require no detention from business, and are the only advertised remedy for constipation favored by the Medical Profession.
WARRANTED IN EVERY KIND OF PILES
and Falling of the Rectum, as they reach the cause. All outward applications are only [illegible]. Also, we promise a cure for every kind of DYSPEPSIA,
such as Oppression after Eating, Sour Stomach, Spitting of Food, Palpitation, also Headache, Dizziness, Pain in the Back or Loins, Yellowness of the Skin or Eyes, Sick Headache, Coated Tongue, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Poor Appetite, Debility, Flatulence, Neuralgic Pains, and all Female Irregularities. Also the best Worm Medicine ever used.

From the Governor of Massachusetts, formerly Mayor of Boston.
Boston, Dec. 1, 1876.
I have known Dr. Harrison for many years as a practical chemist. His statements are worthy of entire confidence. I have heard frequent and favorable mention made of his medical preparations, and have examined testimonials respecting them from eminent medical authorities of this city, who employ them in their practice. I have frequently used the Peristaltic Lozenges, and think them to be a most agreeable and valuable medicine.

DR SCHENCK'S STANDARD REMEDIES. The standard remedies for all diseases of the lungs are SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC and SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, and if taken before the lungs are destroyed a speedy cure is effected.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck of Philadelphia owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases.

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To enable the Pulmonic Syrup to do this, Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. Schenck's Mandrake Pills act on the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely and the liver is soon relieved.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, the alkali of which it is composed mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition so that the food and the Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold.

All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner of SIXTH and ARCH STS., Philadelphia, every Monday.

Schenck's Medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country.

BOARD OF TRADE. The Board of Trade met yesterday afternoon in the Council Room. The meeting was called to order at half past two o'clock by Vice President J. D. Warren. The subjects for discussion were "The Water Power of Bangor" and "The Practicability of Erecting a Flour Mill at the Dam." These subjects were discussed in an able and interesting manner by various members of the Board. On motion of T. N. Egery, Esq., it was voted that the erection of a pulp mill and paper mill be the subject for discussion at some future meeting.

Voted, That J. D. Warren be appointed a committee to see that a notice of the next meeting is duly published in the daily papers of this city, with an invitation to all those interested in the erection of a pulp mill and paper mill to attend.

Voted, To adjourn until next Monday afternoon at half past two o'clock.

LECTURE AT CITY HALL. Last evening a fair audience assembled in City Hall to hear Dr. Cyrus Hamlin lecture on the "Eastern Question." The lecturer was introduced by Prof. Sewall in a few appropriate remarks. Dr. Hamlin has been a resident of Constantinople for nearly forty years. He handled the subject in a very interesting manner. Commencing at some of the early scenes of strife between the Eastern powers he carried his hearers along through the Crimean war, which commenced during the year 1853, between Russia and the allied powers, England, France, Sardinia and Turkey. By the aid of the map the lecturer was enabled to point out all the places of interest and show the line of march of the armies. He then gave a description of some of the revolts, from the year 1864 until the year 1867, among which was the Cretan insurrection which led to serious collision with Greece, but was finally terminated by a conference of the great powers of Paris. The lecture was one of great interest and received close attention from the audience throughout.

INSTRUCTION OF CONVICTS.—Mr. Editor:—I notice in the WHIG AND COURIER of the 20th ult. that your County Commissioners claim that the idea of establishing a school room was first put in practice in your jail, and out of it has grown the present system of schools in our prison and jails. I think, however, facts will show that a teacher for the inmates of the prison was employed in March 1874 and has been continued up to the present time; that three years previous to that there was a Chaplain employed, a part of whose duty it was to instruct the inmates in common school branches, and previous to this the wife of the present Warden spent quite a portion of her time in giving instruction to those who [illegible]. So while I would not detract one iota of praise from the faithful jail reformers of your County I would [illegible] the facts to say that the credit of imparting instruction to this unfortunate class belongs either to the present efficient Warden or his kind wife, perhaps both.

The Religious Meetings.

[TO THE EDITOR OF THE WHIG AND COURIER.] Notwithstanding the severe storm the Union service took place at the Hammond Street church Sunday afternoon according to previous announcement. Prof. Barbour preached to an attentive audience on Luke 23: 39-43—The two malefactors. The discourse was extemporaneous and was [illegible] appeal to the conscience.

The meetings for this week will be held as follows: The prayer meeting every morning from 9 o'clock to 10 in the vestry of the Columbia street church. CITY AFFAIRS.

After the address of the Mayor upon motion of Alderman Woodbury, the two Boards adjourned to their respective rooms when the following business was transacted.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Rules and Orders of the old Board were adopted as the Rules and Orders of the present, also the Joint Rules and Orders. The time of the regular meetings of the City Council was fixed for the first Monday of each month.

Order for a Joint Special Committee to report on matters referred from the last City Council to the present passed, and Alderman Woodbury appointed on the part of this Board.

Order for a Joint Special Committee to report on the subordinate officers necessary to be chosen passed and Alderman Fletcher appointed on the part of this Board.

Order for Joint Special Committee on salaries of the subordinate officers for the present municipal year passed, and Alderman Morison appointed on the part of this Board.

Communication of John [illegible] claiming a seat in the Board of Aldermen as Alderman-elect in Ward One. Referred to the Committee on Elections when that committee shall have been appointed.

The order for printing the annual reports of the officers for the past year and the account of receipts and expenditures was laid on the table.

Voted to adjourn to Thursday evening next at 7½ o'clock.

IN COMMON COUNCIL.

The new Council proceeded to organize by choosing Frank H. Drummond President, and Charles [illegible] Clerk, by a unanimous vote.

Concurrent action was taken on all matters passed by the upper Board, and the following were appointed from this Board on the Joint Special Committees:

Salaries—Councilmen Holt and Cutler.

Subordinate Officers—Councilmen Morton and Williams.

Business from the Old Council—Councilmen Holt and Forbes.

Adjourned to Thursday evening next.

CORINTH CHEESE FACTORY.

Operations in 1875 and 1876.

The Corinth Cheese Factory Association at their annual meeting held on the 14th inst., elected their old board of officers for the ensuing year as follows: John Thissel, President; Clark Hersey, Vice President; Charles [illegible], Secretary; Timothy McDonald, Treasurer; E. R. Bean, Walt Cheney and G. H. Smith, Directors.

It was well known by the stockholders that there had been quite a loss made on the first season's (1875) operations, but they were not aware that the amount was so large as was reported by the Treasurer at this meeting. By his report it was shown that the whole amount paid out for milk labor and material for making cheese was $7,080.47. The whole amount received for the sale of cheese was $5,650.73, making a nett loss to the Association for the season of 1875 of $1,[illegible].74. This was owing mainly to the high price paid for milk, shrinkage of and low price of cheese.

The Treasurer's report for 1876 gives a rather more encouraging exhibit, and from which we get the following items: Commenced making cheese June 5th; the largest amount of milk brought to the factory in any one day was 4,008 lbs.; whole number of days operation, 114; total number of pounds of milk received for the season 337,178; total number of pounds of green cheese 38,0[illegible]; average number of pounds of milk to one of green cheese 8 85-100; average number of pounds of milk to one of cured cheese 10 6-100; whole number of cheese made 700; whole amount paid out for milk $2,760.24; cost to make per pound 1 40-100 cents.

The cheese have all been sold and the season's operation shows a nett profit of four hundred [illegible] dollars and fifty eight cents. This amount together with $175.50 in the Treasury will be appropriated to paying the outstanding debt and will reduce it to $880.58. Probably an assessment will be made on the stockholders this [illegible] season and the whole debt wiped out.

"GOD KNOWS."

BY JULIA C. DORR.

Oh! wild and dark was the winter night,
When the emigrant ship went down,
But just outside of the harbor bar,
In the sight of the startled town!
The winds howled, and the sea roared,
And never a soul could sleep,
Save the little ones on their mothers' breasts,
Too young to watch and weep.

No boat could live in the angry surf,
No rope could reach the land;
There were bold, brave hearts upon the shore,
There was many a ready hand;
Women who prayed, and men who strove
When prayers and work were vain,—
For the sun rose over the awful void
And the silence of the main!

All day the watchers paced the sands—
All day they scanned the deep;
All night the booming minute-guns
Echoed from steep to steep!
"Give up thy dead, O cruel sea!"
They cried athwart the space,
But only a baby's fragile form
Escaped from its stern embrace!

Only one little child of all
Who with the ship went down,
That night, when the happy babies slept
So warm in the sheltered town!
Wrapped in the glow of the morning light,
It lay on the shifting sand,
As fair as a sculptor's marble dream,
With a shell in its dimpled hand.

There were none to tell of its race or kin,
"God knoweth," the Pastor said,
When the sobbing children crowded to ask
The name of the baby dead.
And so when they laid it away at last
In the churchyard's hushed repose,
They raised a stone at the baby's head
With the carven words—"God knows!"

SOAPS.

There is no place on earth where Soaps can be [illegible] or more cheaply made than in Bangor. We [illegible]. We can and will sell first class Family Soaps, hard or soft, as low as any factory in the land. We have long been in want of a good general agent to help extend our trade, further than we can otherwise extend it. Believing MR. GEORGE B. ROBINSON to be a man of integrity and business tact as well, have given him this position. We will here say that we guarantee that he will fill orders for soaps of all grades and kinds, and any and all other goods we make or handle at the lowest factory rates. STODDARD & HELLIER.

Bangor, Feb. 5, 1877.

To F. A. WILSON, Esquire, a Justice of the Peace, within and for the County of Penobscot, resident in Bangor.

The undersigned, three members of the Bangor [illegible] Company, a corporation established by law, and located in Bangor aforesaid, in the County of Penobscot and State of Maine, respectfully represent that the interest of said corporation requires that a special meeting of the stockholders thereof be held at the earliest possible time, and that such a meeting cannot be otherwise called lawfully, than as provided in the Revised Statutes of this State, chapter 46, Section [illegible], wherefore we do respectfully request you to issue your warrant to one of our number as by said statute provided, directing him to call a meeting of said stockholders to be held at the office of said Company in Bangor, on Thursday, the 22d instant, at three o'clock in the afternoon, to [illegible] such by-laws of said Company as are necessary in regard to the manner of calling special meetings in future; and also in regard to the hiring money for the use of the Company, upon the notes of the Company, and in regard to pledging the securities of the Company for the payment thereof to such an amount as the [illegible] of the Company's [illegible] exigencies of the Company [illegible] from time to time, [illegible] in regard to [illegible] of said Company, also to act upon any other business which may be lawfully [illegible] at said meeting.

Dated at Bangor, this 14th day of March, 1877.

CHAS. WOODMAN,
[illegible],
ALEX. WEBB.

To CHARLES WOODMAN, one of the [illegible] named in the foregoing application.

You are hereby directed to call a meeting of the [illegible] Company [illegible] for the purposes therein [illegible], by publishing in the Bangor Daily Whig and Courier a [illegible] of the foregoing application [illegible] days before the meeting.

In testimony of which I have hereunto affixed my hand and seal this [illegible] day of March, A. D. 1877.

Bangor, 13th March, 1877.

ST. NICHOLAS.

"The king of all publications issued for the young on either side of the Atlantic."—Southampton (England) Observer.

The third volume of this incomparable Magazine is now completed. With its eight hundred royal octavo pages, and its six hundred illustrations, its splendid serials, its shorter stories, poems, and sketches, etc., etc., in its beautiful binding of red and gold, it is the most attractive book for boys and girls ever issued from the press. Price, $4; in full gilt, $5.

"St. Nicholas is full of the choicest things. The publication is, in all respects, the best of its kind. We have never yet seen a number that was not surprisingly good."—The Churchman, Hartford, Conn.

ST. NICHOLAS for 1877,

Which opens with November, 1876, begins a short and [illegible] serial by [illegible], from the [illegible] "The Kingdom of the Greedy," a story adapted to the Thanksgiving season. Another [illegible] of absorbing interest to boys,

"HIS OWN MASTER," by J. T. Trowbridge, author of the "Jack Hazard Stories," begins in the Christmas Holiday number.

Besides serial stories, Christmas stories, lively sketches, poems and pictures for the holidays, and some astonishing exploits of Oriental sports, with drawings by Siamese artists, the Christmas Holiday Number of St. Nicholas, superbly illustrated, contains a very interesting paper,

"THE BOYS OF MY BOYHOOD," by William Cullen Bryant;

"The Horse Hotel," a lively article, by Charles A. Barnard, splendidly illustrated; "A Christmas Play for Sunday Schools," by Dr. Eggleston, [illegible] Proctor, "A Christmas Play for Home and Sunday Schools," by Dr. Eggleston; "The [illegible]," [illegible] by Celia Thaxter; with contributions [illegible].

Do Not Fail to Buy ST. NICHOLAS for Christmas. PRICE 25 cents.

During the year there will be interesting papers for boys, by William Cullen Bryant, John G. Whittier, Thomas Hughes, William Howitt, Dr. Holland, George MacDonald, Sanford B. Hunt, Frank R. Stockton, and others.

There will be stories, sketches, and poems, of special interest to girls, by Harriet Prescott Spofford, Susan Coolidge, Sarah Winter Kellogg, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Louisa Alcott, Lucretia P. Hale, Celia Thaxter, Mary Mapes Dodge, and many others. There will be also with maps, showing "The Stars of Each Month," which will be likely to surpass in interest any series on popular science recently given to the public.

"TWELVE SKY PICTURES," by Professor Proctor, the Astronomer,

AMUSEMENT AND INSTRUCTION, WITH FUN AND FROLIC, AND WIT AND WISDOM, will be mingled as heretofore, and ST. NICHOLAS will continue to delight the young and give pleasure to the old.

THE LONDON LITERARY WORLD says:

"There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of SCRIBNER'S press. All the articles, whether in prose or rhyme, are throbbing with vitality. * * * The literature and pictures are both superb."

The London Daily News says: "We wish we could point out its equal in our own periodical literature."

GOOD NEWS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

To meet the demand for a cheaper ST. NICHOLAS Gift-Book, the price of vols. I and II has been reduced to $3 each. The three volumes, in an elegant library case, are sold for $10 (in full gilt, $15), so that all may give their children a complete set. These volumes contain more attractive material than fifty dollars' worth of the ordinary children's books.

Subscription price, $3 a year. The three bound volumes and a subscription for this year, only $12. Subscribe with the nearest newsdealer, or send money in check, or P. O. money order, or in registered letter, to VEGETINE.

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System.

ITS MEDICINAL PROPERTIES ARE Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated, that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of SCROFULA, SCROFULOUS HUMOR, TUMORS, CANCER, CANCEROUS HUMOR, ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM, SYPHILITIC DISEASES, CANKER, FAINTNESS AT THE STOMACH, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. SCIATICA, INFLAMMATORY AND CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, GOUT AND SPINAL COMPLAINTS, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For ULCERS and ERUPTIVE DISEASES of the SKIN, PUSTULES, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, BOILS, TETTER, SCALD HEAD and RINGWORM, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For PAINS IN THE BACK, KIDNEY COMPLAINTS, DROPSY, FEMALE WEAKNESS, LEUCORRHŒA, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and GENERAL DEBILITY, VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For CATARRH, DYSPEPSIA, HABITUAL COSTIVENESS, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, HEADACHE, PILES, NERVOUSNESS AND GENERAL PROSTRATION OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM, no medicine has given such perfect satisfaction as the VEGETINE. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by VEGETINE have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, VEGETINE is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

PREPARED BY

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON, MASS.

What is Vegetine?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves and gives them Nature's sweet sleep, as has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take, every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the VEGETINE. Give it a fair trial for your complaints, then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it, it has cured me."

VEGETINE for the complaints for which it is recommended, is having a larger sale throughout the United States than any other one medicine. Why? VEGETINE WILL CURE THESE COMPLAINTS.

Cannot be Excelled.

CHARLESTOWN, MASS., March 19, 1869.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and think that, for scrofula or Cankerous Humors, or Rheumatic Affections, it cannot be excelled; and, as a blood purifier or spring medicine, it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. Yours respectfully,

MRS. A. A. DINSMORE, 19 Russell St.

Gives Health, Strength and Appetite.

My daughter has received great benefit from the use of the VEGETINE. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all of her friends. A few bottles of the VEGETINE restored her health, strength and appetite. N. H. TILDEN,

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, administrator with the will annexed, of the estate of Paul M. Fisher, late of Chelsea, in the State of Mass., having estate in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said deceased are not sufficient to pay his just debts and charges of administration and legacies.

Wherefore your petitioner prays that license may be granted him to sell at public or private sale, and convey all the right, title and interest in Hampden and County of Penobscot, as the petitioner would be entitled to, or the whole of the real estate of said deceased, to satisfy said debts, expenses of sale, and charges of administration and legacies.

Said real estate is the same described in deeds recorded in the Registry of Deeds of said County, Vol. [illegible], page [illegible].

To the Judge of Probate of the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, administrator of the estate of Catherine Welch, late of Bangor, in said County, deceased, intestate, represents that he has settled his final account of administration of her estate, and that there remains in his hands for distribution among her heirs, the sum of $[illegible], subject to the expenses of distribution; that according to his knowledge and belief, her father, Martin Welch, was her sole heir at law; that since her decease said Martin has died, testate, leaving a wife, two daughters, Hannah and Annie, and three sons, John, Patrick and William—the mother, sisters and brothers of said Catherine; that by his will said Martin disposed of his estate in a manner different from that in which it would have descended if he had died intestate, so that the share of said Martin in said Catherine's estate is the whole, as the undersigned believes, subject to the expenses aforesaid.

Wherefore he prays that you will pass your order determining who are heirs of said Catherine and the share of each, and, for the legal distribution of the same.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters will be delivered by Carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of them and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it will be more convenient to have the street and number, and they will be delivered earlier than if the Carrier is obliged to call at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for the outgoing mails. The down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at this office.

Sundays, the Carrier's Window will be open from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from [illegible] to [illegible] P. M.

Any irregularities in the Carrier's department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the request for return [illegible] upper left hand corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] when ordered not to be [illegible].

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left hand end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped Envelopes with printed return requests, as the expense is trifling, and letters thus enclosed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

[illegible] envelopes [illegible] at this office [illegible].

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

All letters must be Prepaid.—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof. City letters, two cents for each half ounce or fraction.

NEWSPAPERS.

After January 1st, 1875, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication, at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue of weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week, [illegible] frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices.

Papers [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

Transient newspapers, magazines, etc., [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed [illegible] they are then forwarded to Washington.

MONEY ORDERS

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than Fifty Dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person at the same time by additional orders.

RATES.

On orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents.
Over $15 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents.
Over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents.
Over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

Money Orders can also be obtained on England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland and the United States.

Never put Money in a Letter—Always Procure a Money Order.

If money is to be remitted, a Postal Money Order should be obtained. If upon points where there is no Money Order Office, then the letter should be Registered. Money should never be enclosed in a letter.

Office Hours. From 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT.

All valuable letters should be Registered, unless a Money Order is obtained. Under the present system of registration, letters are transmitted with perfect security.

Letters may be Registered by paying postage in full, and a Registration fee in stamps, as follows—

United States, 10 cents
Great Britain and Ireland, 10 cents
Canada, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, 10 cents
Germany, and German-Austrian Postal Union, embracing the German and Austrian States, 10 cents
